Ride 'em, cowgirl! Hats off to our sexy cover girl, Lauren Shaw, who wowed a Panama City Beach bikini contest crowd with her wet 'n' wild antics. This sassy gal had every hot-blooded guy in Florida hootin' and hollerin' for more!

TAKE IT OFF!

"This bikini contest at Club La Vela was the best I've ever seen—fabulous girls, a great crowd."

Wearing nothing more than an inviting smile, the lovely Erin Wilson soaks up the sun in South Padre—as Heather Pariso, lower left, contemplates the pros and cons of removing her thong for a skinny-dip in the pool.

Pandemonium in Panama City Beach! When thousands of spring break revelers invade Florida each year, almost anything can happen, and often does—including crazy, near-naked bikini contests and racy games of drunken Twister!

CHERIE ROBERTS

REBECCA NEWELL

Surrounded by tons of dirty boys with beer and sand in all the wrong places, Emily Alexander opts for the serenity of a solo shower, where she can use the nozzle to get every nook and cranny clean.

"This was the largest mud pit I'd ever seen. It wasn't officially sponsored, but the rain, combined with sand, mud and hundreds of enthusiastic kids, made it happen."

*"What can I say?
Into each spring break a little rain must fall."*

"Here's the scoop (moms and dads might want to turn away now): This was a balloon-popping contest with a twist. Contestants had to break the balloons in various sexual positions—missionary, girl-on-top, doggy-style, etc.—and whoever did it fastest won."

CHRISTINA DAVIS

REBECCA DI PIETRO

JANAE HUGHES

Enjoying tropical fruity drinks, these bikini-bottom beauties, Christina Davis, Melissa Pagel, Meredith Thorson and Jennifer Shannon give new meaning to the word swingers.

"This was—bar none—the best bikini and wet T-shirt contest we came across. It was well organized and well attended, and the coeds were great."

"Club owners dangled bikini contests in front of the kids' noses, meanwhile selling keg after keg of beer. This one took place at three a.m., even though it was supposed to start 'sharply' at 10 p.m."

BROOKE BERRY

According to our sources at Hawaiian Tropic, Cancún spring breakers account for 11 percent of their total annual sales of sun-care products.

*"I couldn't help wondering how daughters'

bellies."*

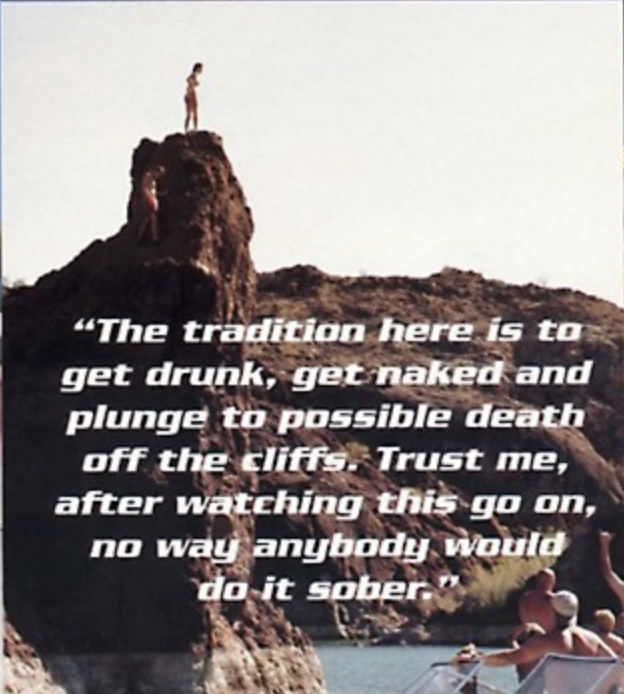

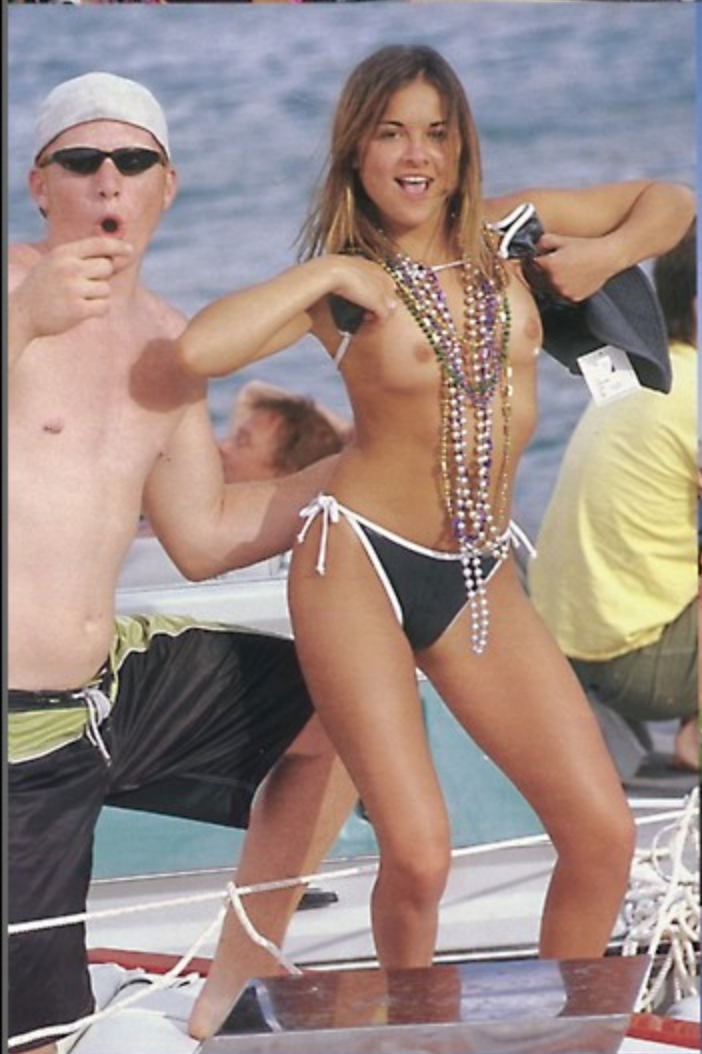

"Belated thanks to the boys of Sigma Chi who lent many helping hands during this shoot."

JESSICA CANIZALES

Lake Havasu has become a Mecca for spring breakers welcoming adventuresome cliff divers and bead-wearing boat partiers by the thousands. But when things heat up in the Arizona sun, Claire Olivia Preziosi must find relief with a cold water splash.

HOLLY LASTINGER

Brandi Sawyer, in a red-hot tiny bikini, turns up the heat in Daytona Beach.

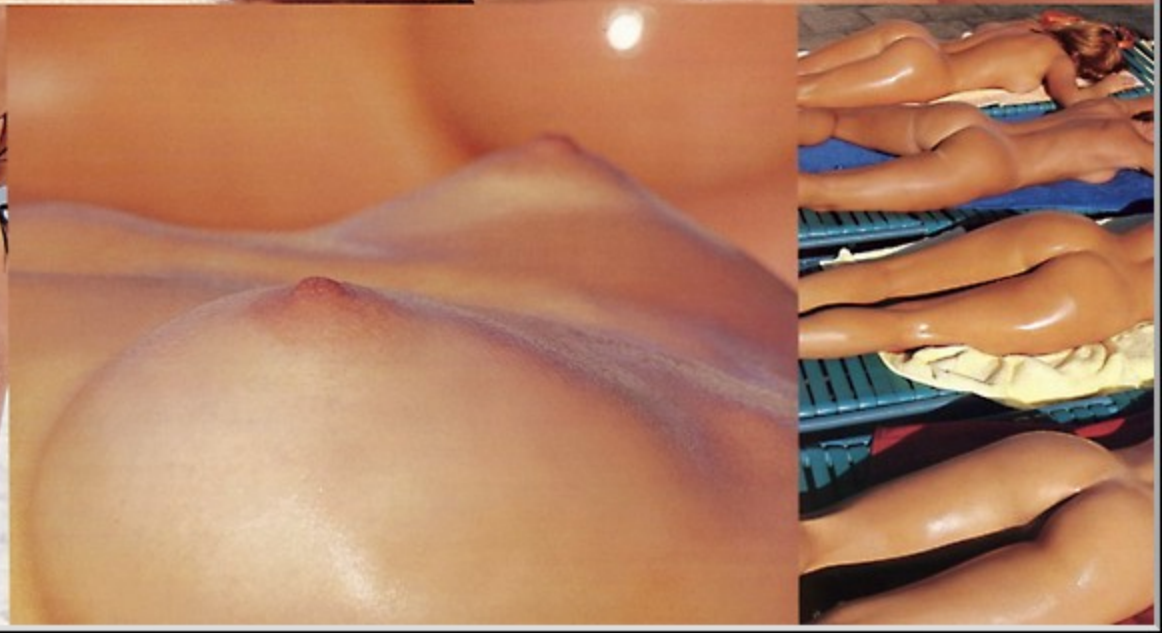

BRANDI SAWYER

Sexy sunbathing beauty Brandi Sawyer says, "Look, Ma, no tan lines!"

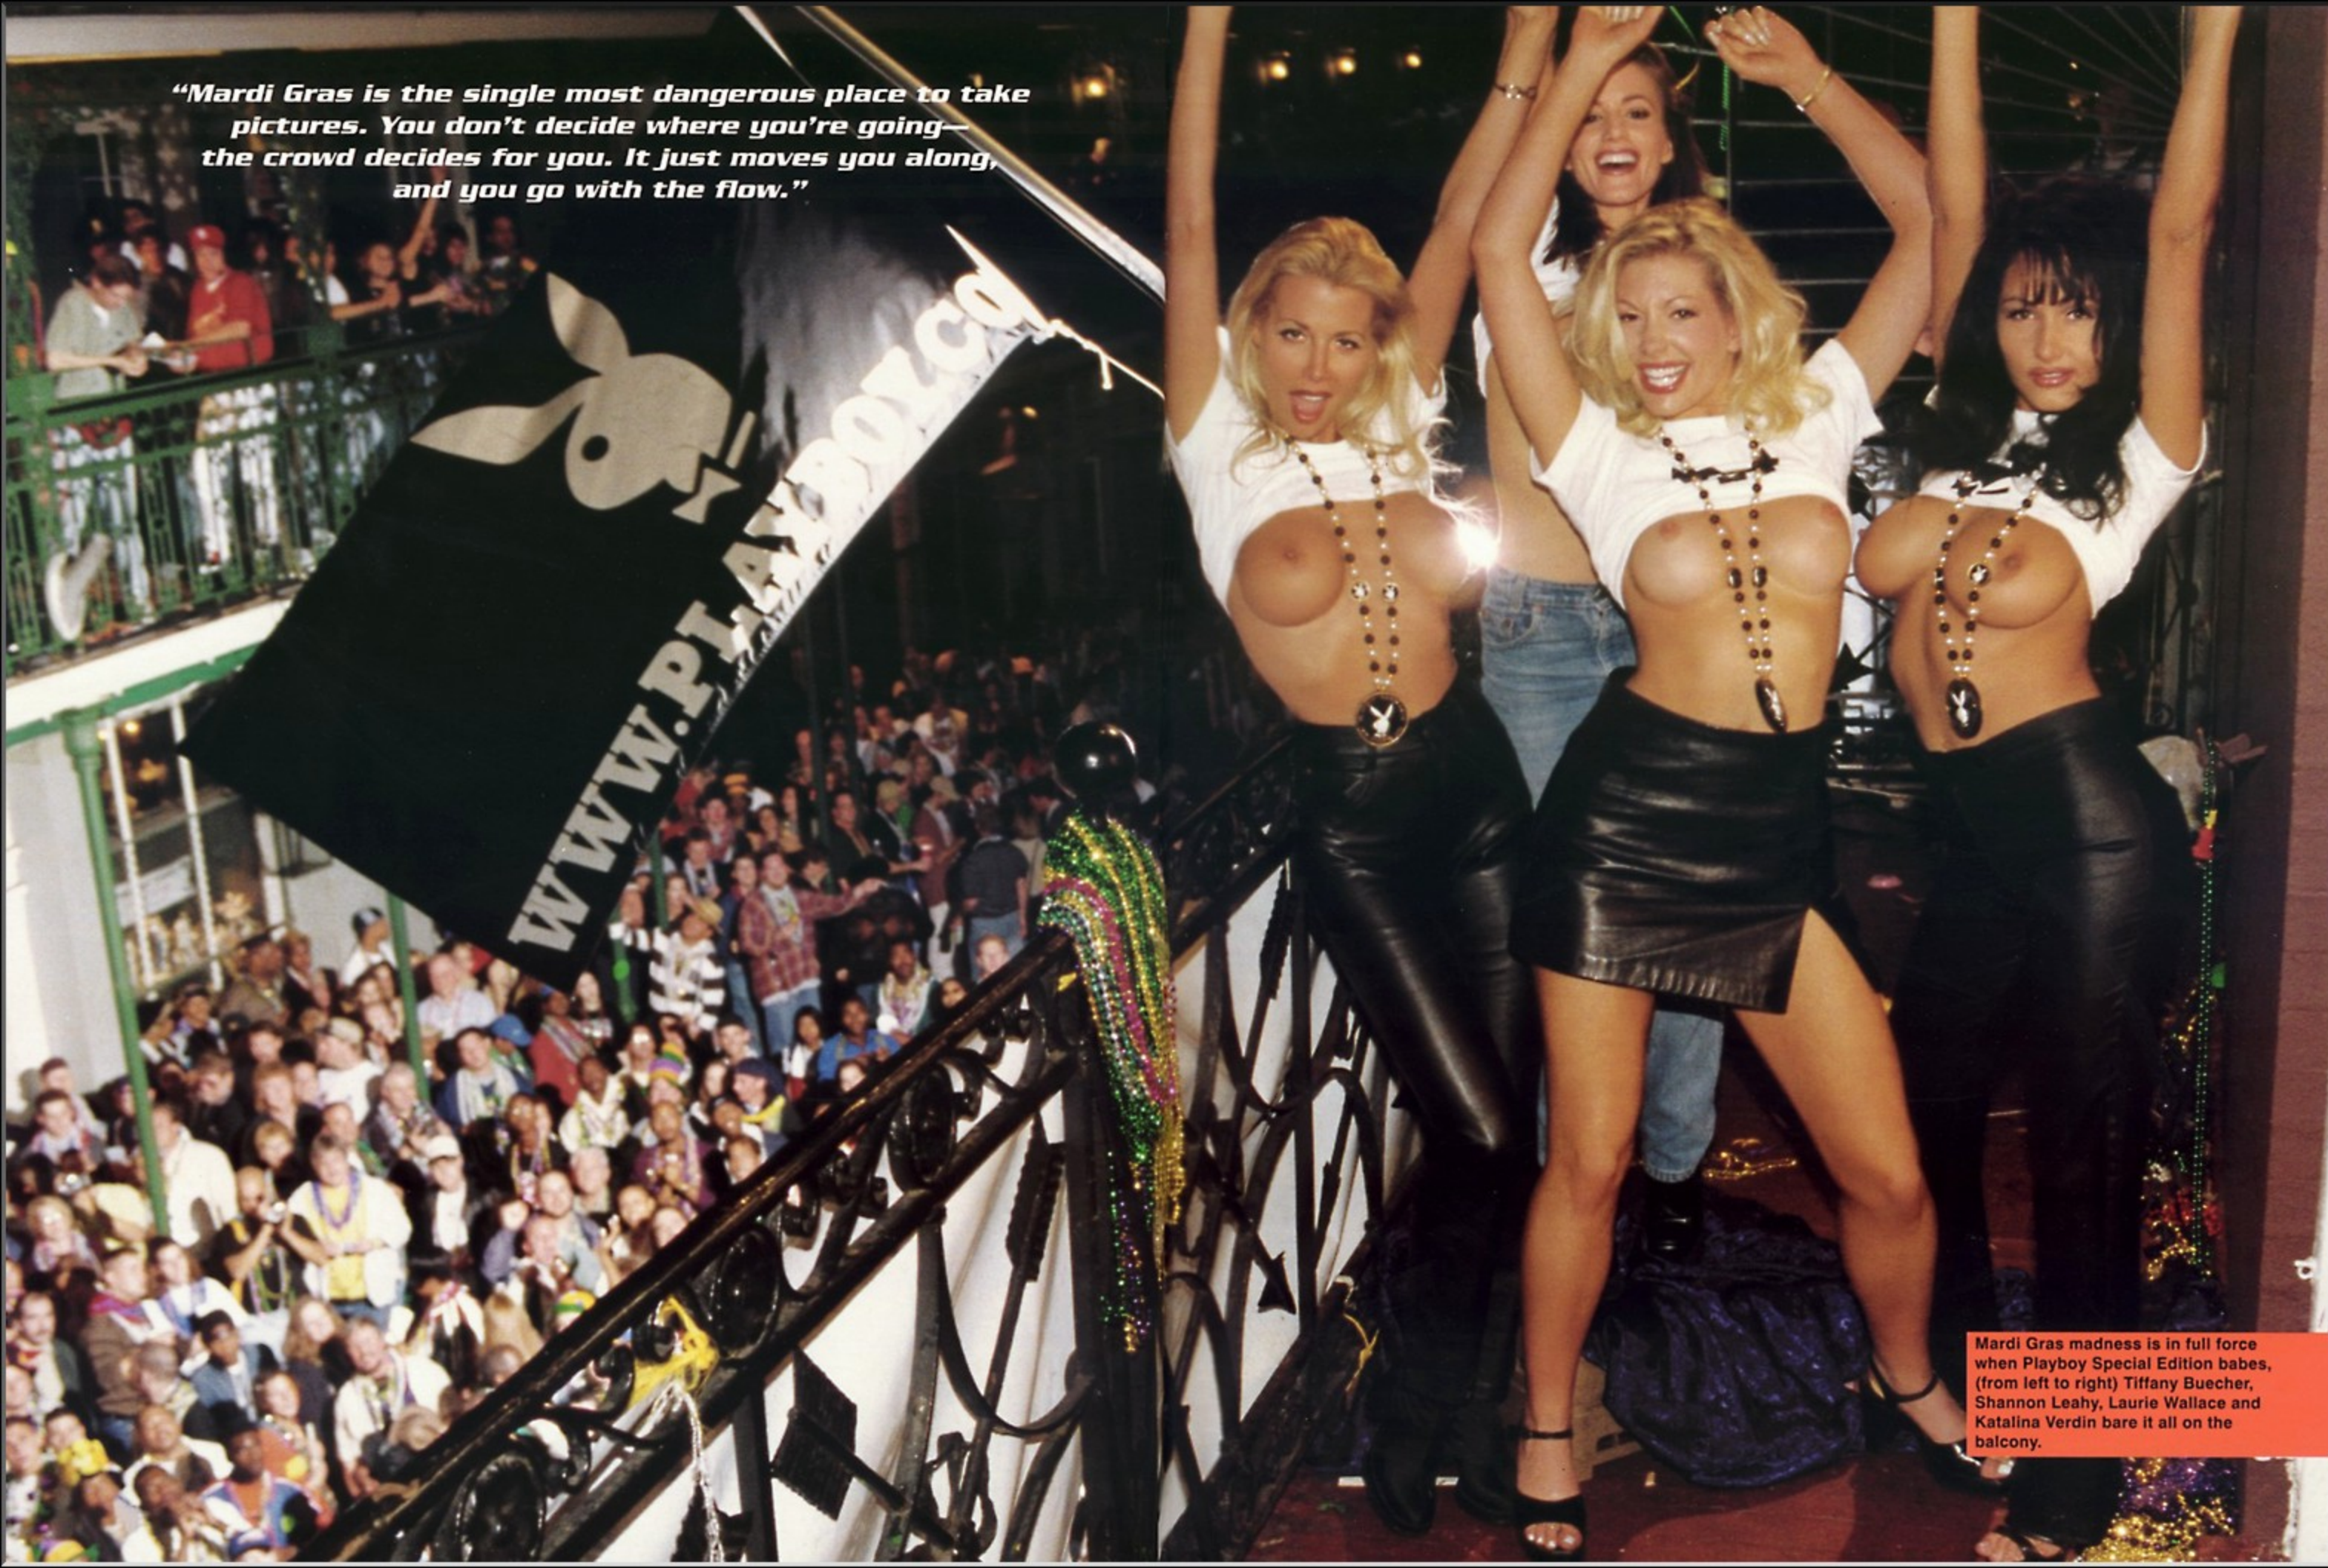

Monica Petschulat, left, daydreams about hot buns and juicy wieners. It's a good thing she paired up with Shannon Snider at the hot dog stand to make her dream a reality.

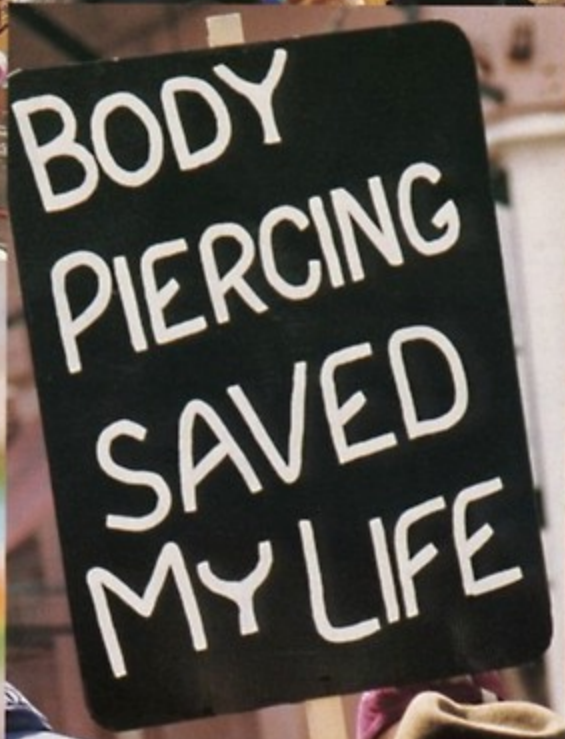

"Mardi Gras is the single most dangerous place to take pictures. You don't decide where you're going—the crowd decides for you. It just moves you along, and you go with the flow."

Mardi Gras madness is in full force when Playboy Special Edition babes, (from left to right) Tiffany Buecher, Shannon Leahy, Laurie Wallace and Katalina Verdin bare it all on the balcony.

"The bottom line here is, 'Show me your tits and I'll give you some beads.' Works every time!"

ANGELA SEIBERT

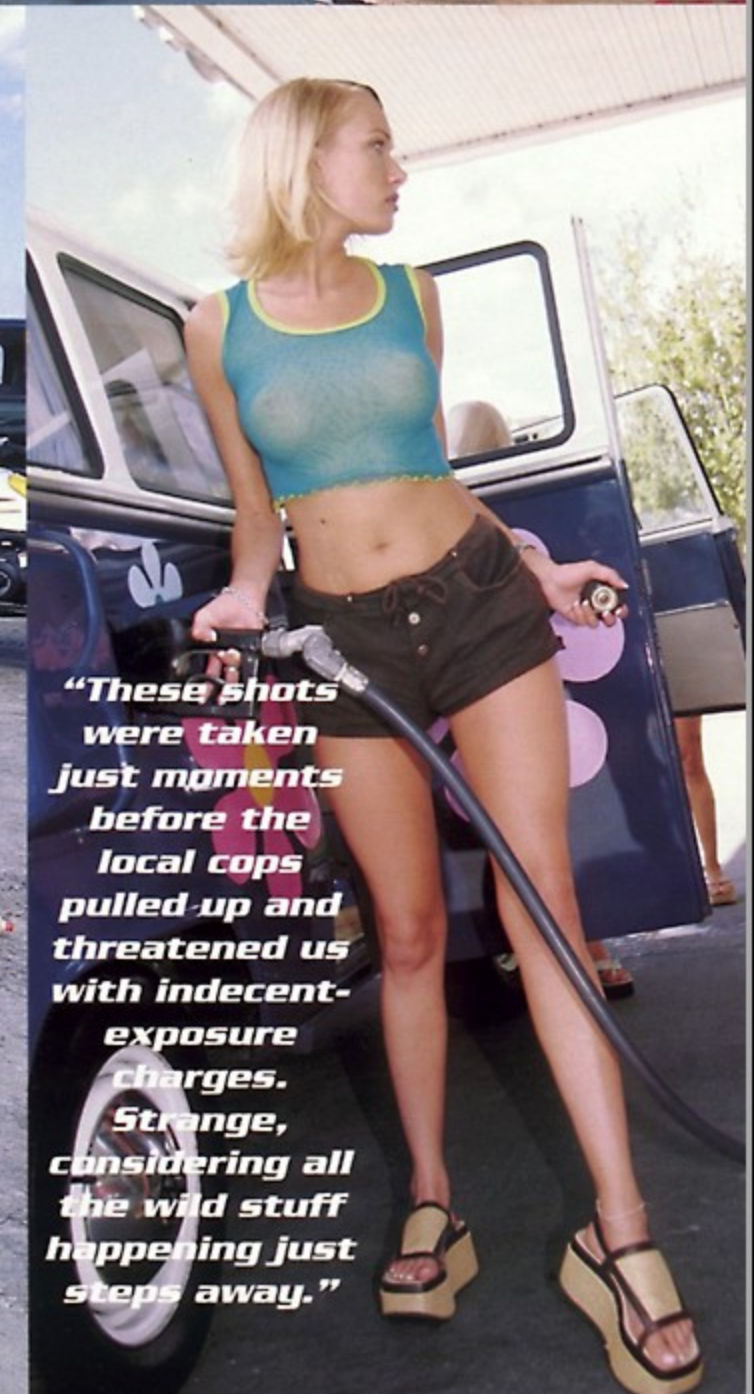

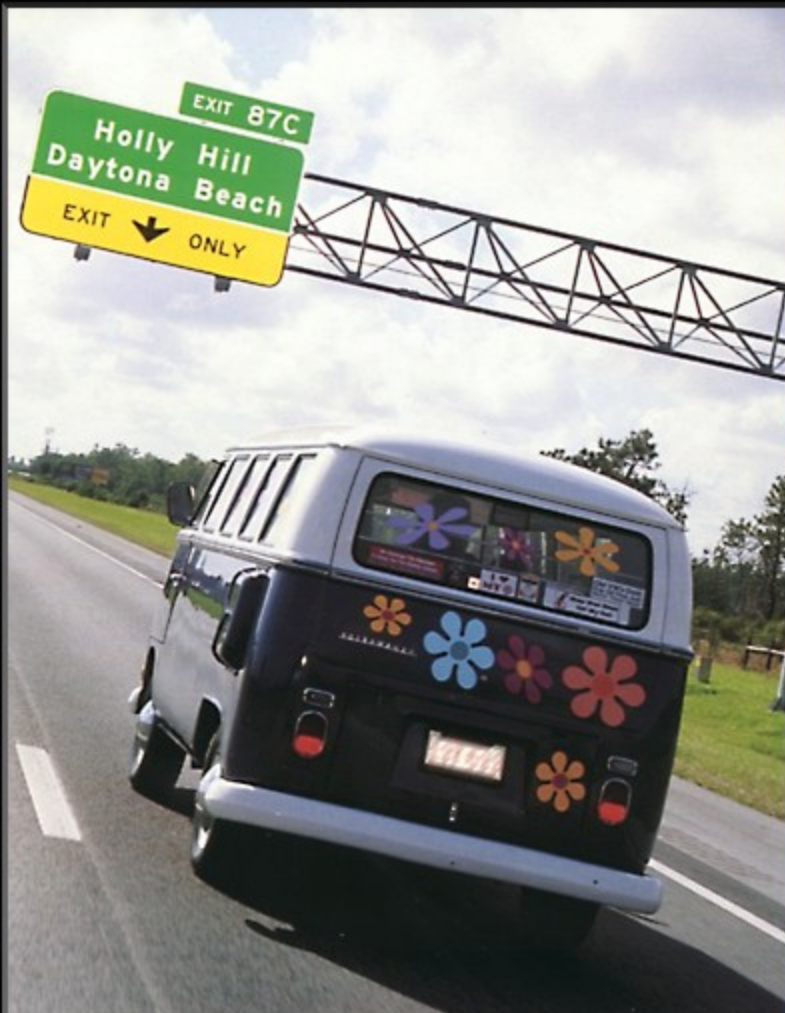

"If you don't move as the line of horses comes through, you become part of the street. They mean business—the party's over, now get out."

MERRITT CABAL

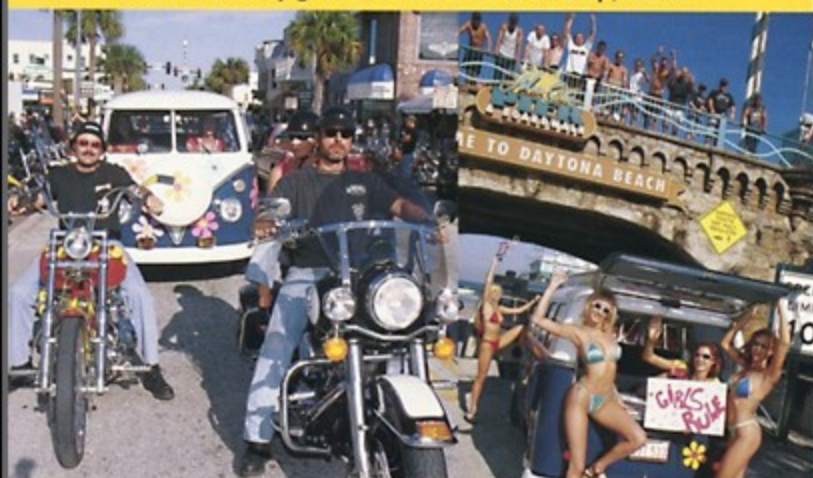

Daytona Beach or bust! The feisty foursome of wild college coeds—Brandy Ritchey, Stephanie Wood, Harmony Guffey and Sara Steele—piled into their “flower power” van and headed south in search of naked fun in the sun!

“These shots were taken just moments before the local cops pulled up and threatened us with indecent-exposure charges. Strange, considering all the wild stuff happening just steps away.”

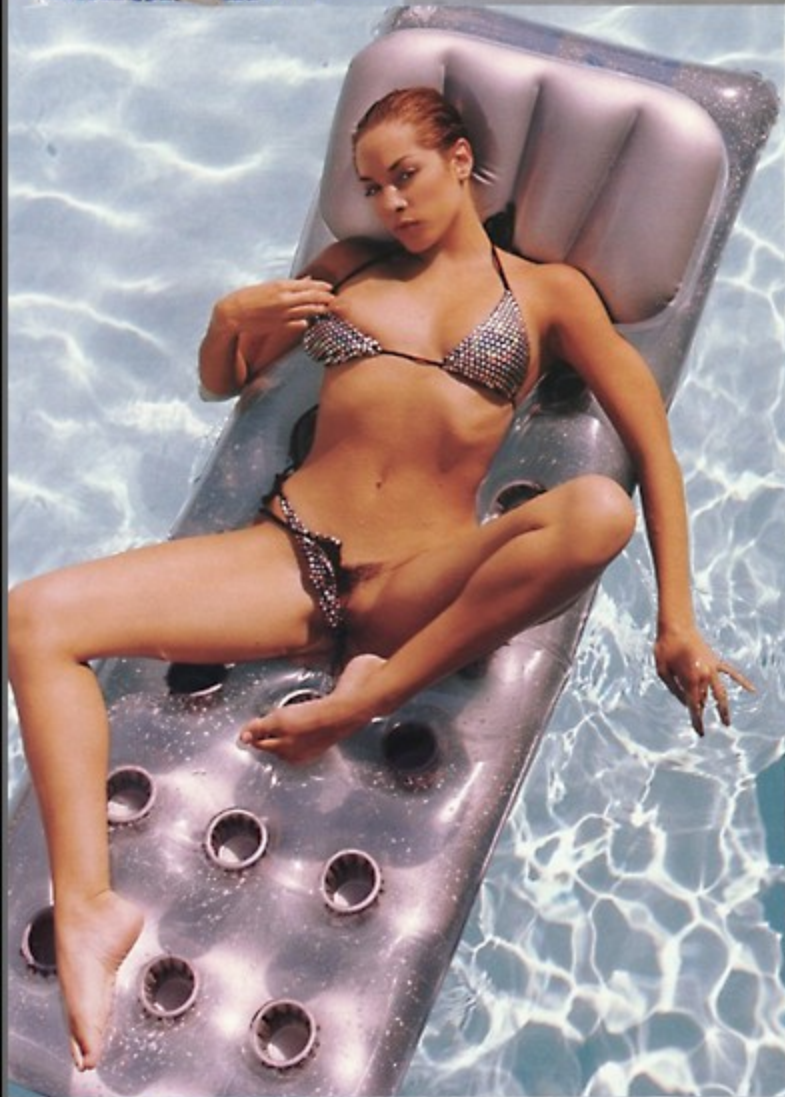

The road trip continues with Daytona-bound beauties Brandy, Stephanie, Sara and Harmony shedding their tiny tops and short shorts the closer they got to the ocean. Bottoms up, ladies!

"We were snatched from the jaws of the law once again by sheer luck. Turns out our production assistant knew a secretary at the police station. She pleaded our case, and we were spared shackles."

HARMONY GUFFEY

STEPHANIE WOOD

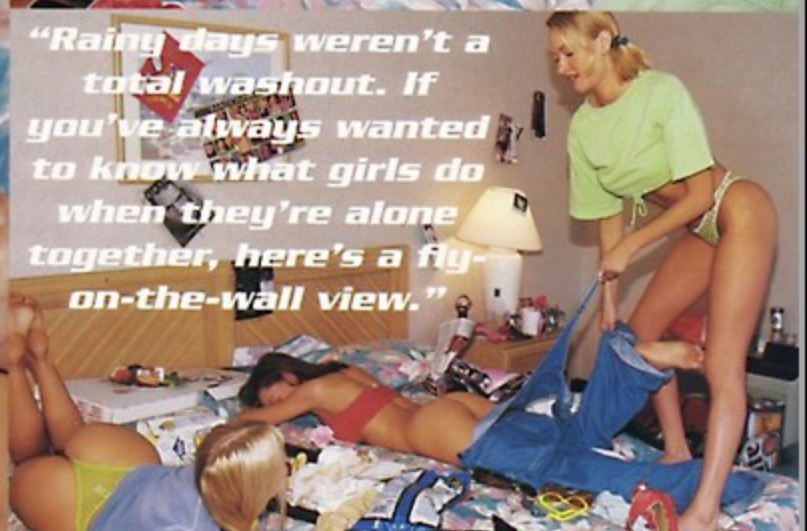

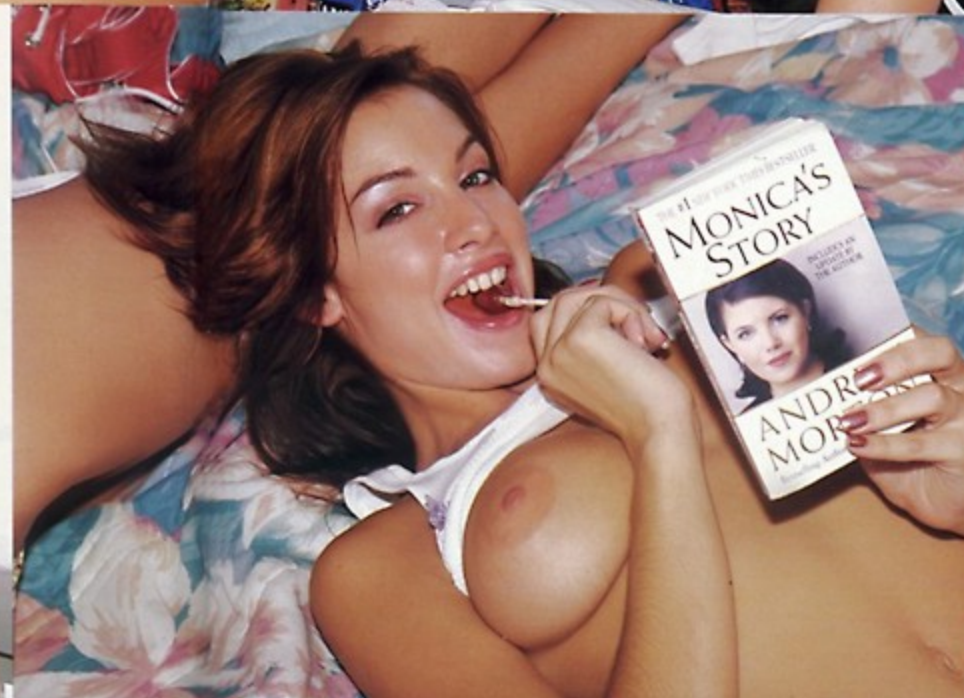

BRANDY RITCHIEY

"Rainy days weren't a total washout. If you've always wanted to know what girls do when they're alone together, here's a fly-on-the-wall view."

Stephanie, Brandy, Sara and Harmony blow off some steam with an energetic pillow fight that ends in a king-size naked slumber party. Ah, every man's fantasy comes true!

"Daytona still lets you drive your car onto the beach, but the female chassis we found there seemed a more fitting farewell to spring break."
